Lighting the Way for the Next Generation

The students who come to Mid-America have boldly and faithfully answered God's call to lead their generation in service to God. They aspire to become future:

Missionaries Pastors
Counselors Professors
Community Leaders Business Leaders

These are not professions that command exorbitant salaries. Our students are not in it for the money. They are pursuing God and want to see lives changed for Jesus.

This is why you, our donors, are so essential. Your gifts allow Mid-America students to keep their focus on ministry, not debt.
